

Duxbury Clipper, Wednesday July 8, 1998

American Legion

Fourth of July parade judge
Daria Gallerani

106th Fourth of July Parade

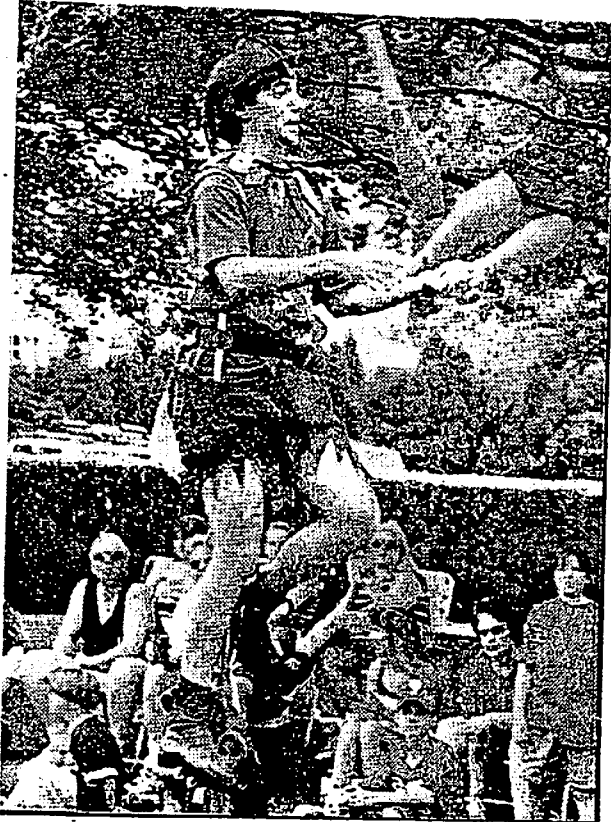

Photos by Fran Nichols

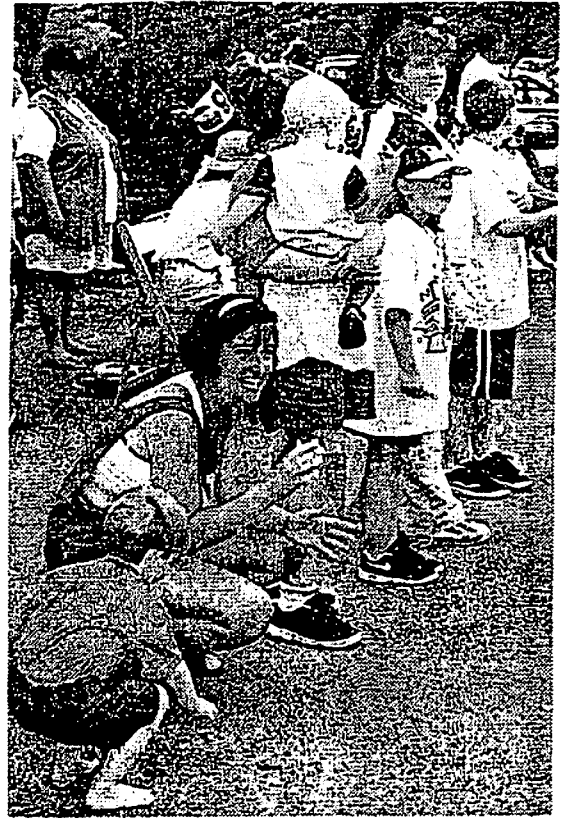

The Plymouth County Sheriff's Dept. - equine division.

Duxbury Clipper, Wednesday July 8, 1998

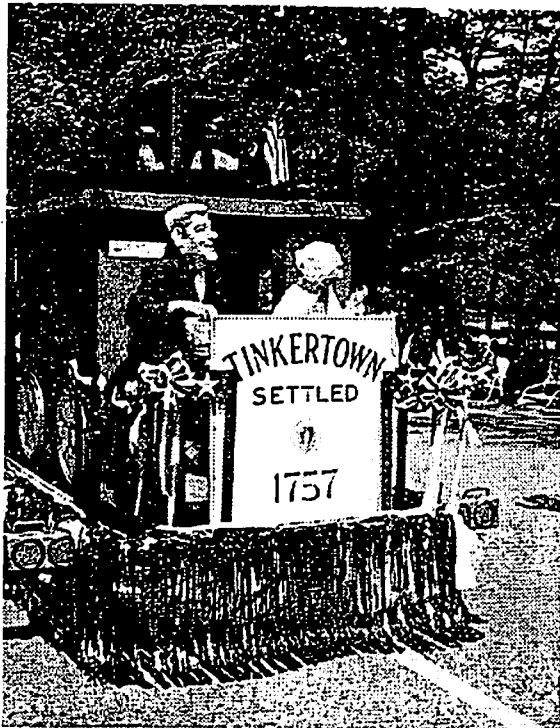

15

A skillful juggler on a unicycle entertains the crowds at the parade.

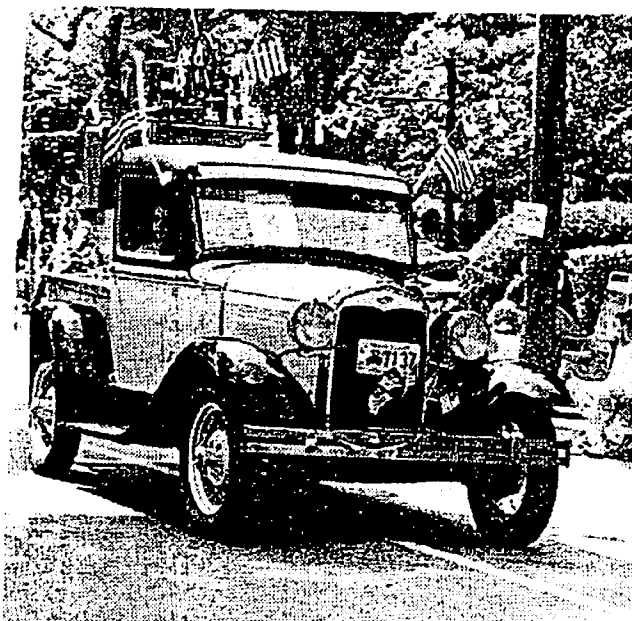

The crowd on Washington St. enjoys the parade.

Tinkertown float, winner of the Parcher Trophy.

The color guard.

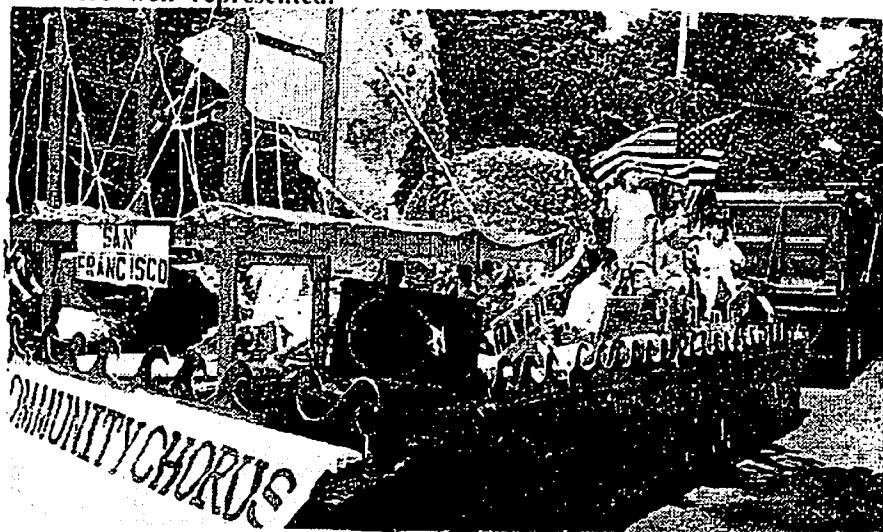

Antique autos were well represented.

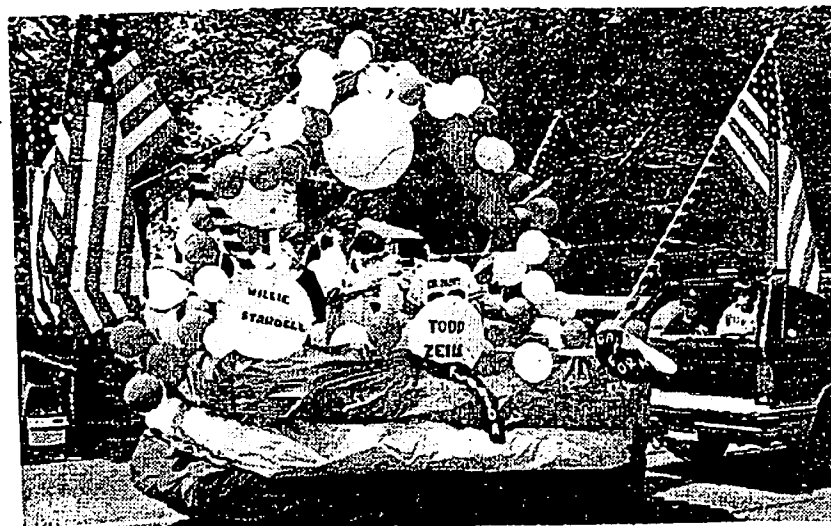

Parade Marshall Alison Berglund.

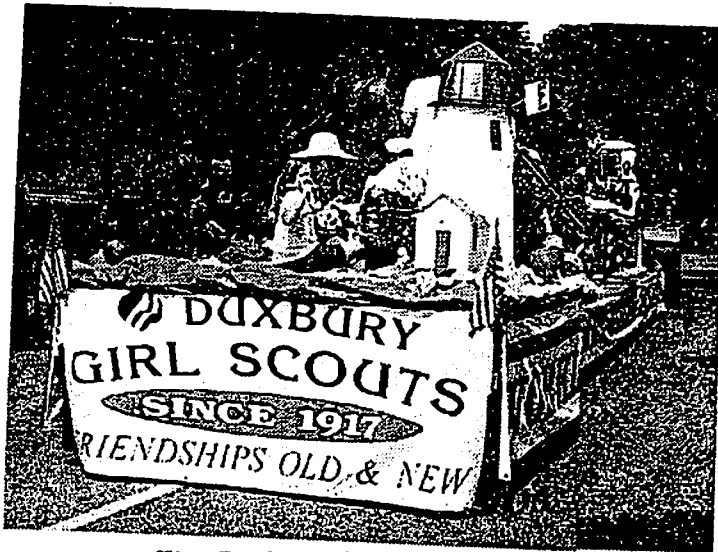

Duxbury American Legion.

The Snug Harbor Community chorus had a beautiful float in Duxbury's 106th Fourth of July parade.

Duxbury Youth Baseball's red, white and blue float.

The Duxbury Girl Scouts float.

A clown sports a polka-dot bowtie.

The Duxbury Selectmen: John Tuffy, Andre Mecchini and Margaret Kearney.

A patriotic Rosemarie Cole rode her bike to view the parade.

Children catch candy tossed by the South Shore Shriners.

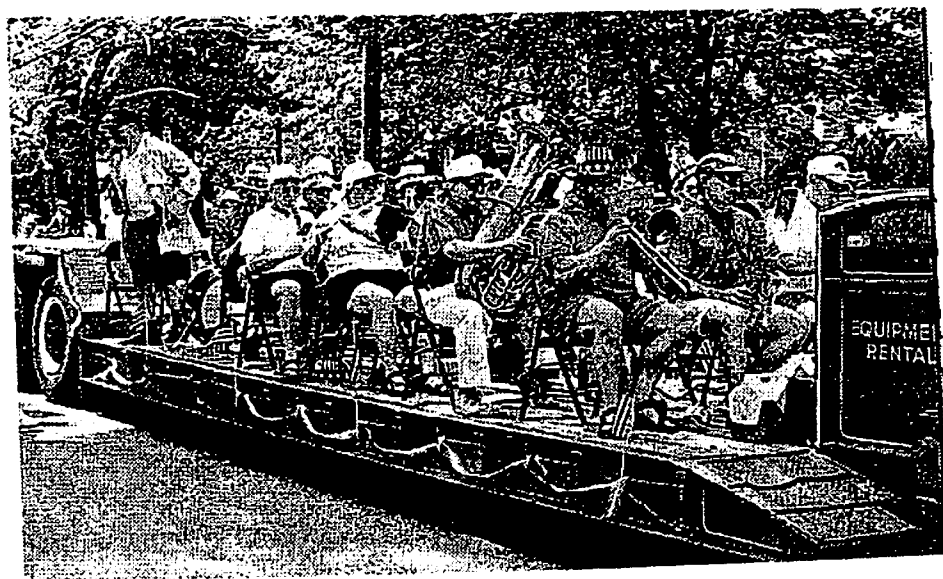

Holy Trinity Cadets Drum and Bugle Corps.

The DHS Marching Band,

The colorful banner for the Duxbury Town Path is carried down Washington St. for the 4th of July parade.

The South Shore Bay Band.

The Fourth of July parade winds its way down Washington St.